Before the first day of the conference wrapped up, Amateo proudly showcased the five nominated projects for the Amateo Award 2019. In the end, Belgium arts group Moving Ground bagged the plum prize presented by Ms. Snežana Sedlar, VP of Assembly of AP of Vojvodina, and our Amateo president.

During the annual General Assembly 2019 of Amateo, held the next day 08 June in Novi Sad, we were graced by the presence of the new members to our growing European network.

Amateo welcomes four new members!

It is with sincere pleasure that we welcome 4 new members to our network: Association of amateur cultural-artistic societies of Republika Srpska or SAKUD RS (Bosnia and Hercegovina), Factorium Podiumkunsten and Organisatie van Muziekverenigingen in Fryslân (O.M.F.) from the Netherlands, and Youth Theatre Arts Scotland.

We now have 45 members in 19 different countries across Europe!

We also deeply appreciate their presence at the recent Amateo annual conference in Novi Sad, Serbia last 07-08 June and look forward to their valuable contribution to our network.
